

MANDATORY CONTINUITY

The Brave Bear's Big Leap

By LumiTale Books

Barnaby the bear wanted to join the Great Forest Leap.

Thump! Barnaby missed the log and a soft pile of moss.

The other animals giggled as Barnaby became a prickly bear.

Barnaby felt very embarrassed.

But then, he saw a little squirrel practicing.

She fell down, but she got right back up.

Barnaby decided to practice by himself.

Ouch! He tumbled over his own paws.

He tried a new way. He focused on his footing.

Day 1

Day 2

Day ...

Day after day, he practiced. He fell, but he kept trying.

He was getting stronger every
day.

Then came the day of the big show.

He took a deep breath. He jumped! He wobbled, but he stayed up.

He did a flip and landed with a happy grin!

They cheered for his hard work.

They saw how much he practiced.

They laughed about the many times he fell before he flew.

Copyright (c) 2026 Xu Yeye, MeloTale Books, and/or LumiTale Books, as identified in the book. All rights reserved. Unless otherwise identified as public domain or governed by a different license, the original text, adaptations, illustrations, layout, and compilation in this PDF are provided for personal, family, and non-commercial classroom use only. Commercial reproduction, resale, redistribution for payment, advertising use, or any other profit-making use is prohibited without prior written permission from the applicable copyright owner. TaleMelo distributes this PDF but does not transfer ownership or grant commercial rights. Underlying public-domain material remains public domain.